KATE TAYLOR IS COMING TO NEW BEDFORD !!

The New Bedford Civil War Round Table announces the New Bedford appearance of Mrs. Kate Taylor, Living Historian, in the role of Mary Surratt, co-conspirator of the Abraham Lincoln assassination. Was she guilty? Did she deserve to be hanged?

In 1865 Mary Surratt was running a boarding house in Washington D.C. She was put on trial, as a co-conspirator in the assassination of Abraham Lincoln and was the first woman to be executed by the United States government. Kate, as Mary Surratt, fills her final days, in Washington D.C. recalling memories of her family, the choices she made throughout the bloody American Civil War, and the man who brought her and her fellow prisoners to ruin, John Wilkes Booth.

See her performance "Beware the People Whistling—the Final Days of Mary Surratt" at the New Bedford Whaling National Historical Park on Tuesday, Oct 23rd @7:00 p.m.

Mrs. Taylor will be visiting New Bedford the week of October 22nd and is available to your organization for her Mary Surratt or Lizzie Borden presentation.

Mrs. Taylor is also a Living Historian for Lizzie Borden. This performance is titled "Confessions of an Axe Murderess: The Life and Crimes of Lizzie Borden".

Dressed in period costume, Kate transports you back to Fall River and inside the mind of the mysterious woman who changed it forever. See more details on the reverse side of this announcement.

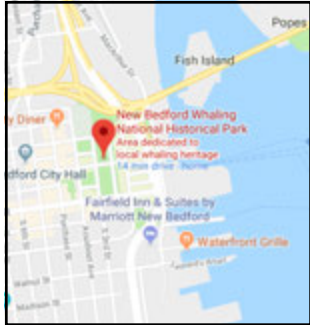

Mrs. Taylor is a 2017 graduate of St. Mary's College of Maryland where she earned her degree in History. She is a living historian with interest in 19th Century crimes and assassinations. She is a docent at the Dr. Samuel Mudd House Museum, in Maryland. She also offers guide services to tour groups following the escape trail of John Wilkes Booth, and she will be our guide for the 2019 "5 Days in May" trip as we tour Washington D.C. She was our tour guide for the 2017 "5 Days in May" trip sponsored by The Greater Boston Civil War Round Table. Kate impressed us with her vast Civil War knowledge and captivating presentation.

Mrs. Taylor will be available to your organization the week of Oct 22nd if you wish to set up an appearance. If so, and wish to know her presentation fee, call me, Bob Lytle at the New Bedford Civil War Round Table, 508-5420-7630.

KATE TAYLOR'S VISIT TO NEW BEDFORD AS MARY SURRATT, WEEK OF OCTOBER 22, 2018

Kate is a Living Historian specializing in the Lincoln assassination and conspiracy. As you can see in the photo here, she has the look of innocence, or does she? That's what makes her first person Living Historian presentations so compelling. Her knowledge of Mary Surratt, John Wilkes Booth, the Lincoln Assassination and the events of April 1865 are extraordinary. Kate, as Mary Surratt, will transport you back in time to the enthralling summer of 1865. Learn the fascinating details of life in the Arsenal Penitentiary, the military tribunal, the witnesses' testimonies, and the overnight building of the gallows.

See her performance, sponsored by the New Bedford Civil War Round Table, at the New Bedford Whaling National Historical Park Main Auditorium, 33 Williams St, New Bedford, MA 02740, on Tues October 23rd @7:00 p.m. There will be no fees or entrance charges to see Kate as Mary Surratt.

Kate will also be available for your organization that week if you wish to set up an appearance. If so, and you wish to know her presentation fee for your group, call me, Bob Lytle, at the New Bedford Civil War Round Table, 508-542-7630.

Kate is also available to your organization for this presentation. Perhaps you would like to do a fundraiser with Kate as your featured performer. Here is your opportunity. Witness how the tragedy of August 4, 1892 came to be through the eyes of its complicated creator.

Both performances can be scheduled during the week of October 22nd. And there is a fee to be paid to her for her performance. If you are interested we will need to schedule this soon, so as to avoid conflicts in her October travel schedule.
